The terms “Compounded SOFR Index” and “United States Government Securities Business Days” shall have the respective meanings ascribed to them in the issuer’s preliminary pricing supplement dated October 18, 2021.

Concurrently with this offering, we are also offering $400,000,000 aggregate principal amount of fixed rate Medium-Term Notes, Series D due 2024 (the “fixed rate notes”), pursuant to a separate pricing supplement. Although we expect that the sales of the fixed rate notes and the floating rate notes offered hereby will take place concurrently, the sales are not conditioned upon each other, and we may consummate the sale of one issue and not the other, or consummate the sales at different times.

It is expected that delivery of the floating rate notes will be made against payment therefor on or about October 25, 2021 which is the fifth trading day following the date hereof (such settlement cycle being referred to as T+5). Purchasers of floating rate notes should note that the ability to settle secondary market trades of the floating rate notes effected on the date of pricing or the next two succeeding business days may be affected by the T+5 settlement. Accordingly, purchasers who wish to trade the floating rate notes on the date of pricing or the next two succeeding business days will be required to specify an alternative settlement cycle at the time of any such trade to prevent a failed settlement and should consult their own legal advisors.
